ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Loyola College Dramatic Society expresses its deep appreciation to all whose unstinted generosity has made this presentation possible.

To Reverend Father Rector, Reverend Father Minister, Reverend Father Dean, and Reverend Father Prefect for every assistence and encouragement.

To Mr. Maurice Stanford S. J., Moderator of the Dramatic Society, patient and painstaking director of this production.

To Mr. John Ready of the Montreal Repertory Theatre whose suggestions in direction and production have been invaluable.

To Professor Jean Drouin, for valuable advice regarding incidental music, and to his college orchestra for their kind assistance.

To Robert Joyce for indefatigable press-work.

To Francis Monaban for direction of the chorus.

To our head ushers, Norman Dann, John Doyle, Francis Kelly, and Harold Tingle, and to their numerous assistants.

To Francis Kelly, Royden Thoms, John Brayley, Paul Limoges, David Asselin, Kevin Mc Kenna, Robert Brodrick, Paul Pare, William Asselin, Harvey Seasons, William Brown, Crawford Lidsay, Valmore Chartier, James O'Connor, Henry McMullen, Francis Ryan, Richard Dawson, John O'Neill, Gerald Gallagher, Ernest McConomy, Frederick Langan, William McCarney, Donnelly Bussiere, Erward Langan, Edward Boyce, and Bruce Ingall for generous work in organizing the sale of tickets.

To our many friends and patrons whose presence and loyal support are most gratifying.

To our advertising agents, and to our programme advertisers, whose desire for our patronage is recommended to the consideration of our friends.
